

Social and Personal

SOcial events, luncheons, dinners, parties to the game, to the vaudeville at the Jefferson, to supper after the Thanksgiving german, rendered the day's program brimful of pleasure and enjoyment for Richmond debutantes, society girls and men and the visiting men and teams from the two universities, who were guests of the Richmond Alumni Chapter of the University of Virginia.

The vaudeville performance at the Jefferson Hotel auditorium was a novel feature of the day and a monumental success. The hall was gay with flowers and palms, with chrysanthemums in yellow and white, and re-echoed to the strains of college songs between acts and moving pictures showing the football leaders on the field. The performers were great in their several roles, and the humorous bits they were quite irresistible. The colors of the flowers and rival pennants and the smart gowns and charming faces of the girls, the enthusiasm of both girls and men, combined to render the finish to the ball game and the overture to the german a really great affair.

At the german the story of auditorium decorations was repeated, and all the arrangements reflected the greatest credit on the young girls' committee in charge, which included Miss Archer Jones, chairman; Miss Fanny Scott, Miss Edith Donnan, Miss Camilla Wellford and Miss Carrie Minor.

The full list of the debutantes, given in some weeks ago, in addition to the committee, included Miss Zayde Branch, Miss Belle Willard, Miss Emily Lyman, Miss Isabel Carter, Miss Emma Gray, Miss Elsie Harrison, Miss Elizabeth Cocke, Miss Mary Chalmers, Miss Jellie Scott, Miss Jane Preston Boulware, Miss Elizabeth Hargrave, Miss Elsie Parrish, Miss Mary Scarborough, Miss Alice Nelson, Miss Katherine Hargrave, Miss Fanny Scott, Miss Fanny Scott, Miss Gay Montague, Miss Anne Traynor, Miss Emily Clark, Miss Carrie Lee, Miss Mary McFadden, Miss Josephine Glasgow Clark, the house guest of Mrs. John S. Muncie, at 5 West Main Street, and Miss Mary Traylor, several of these young girls have been charmed from full participation in the matter of debutante entertainments because of family bereavement.

A goodly number of them made their appearance at the german last night, where dance cards were embossed with the crossed pennants and university colors, and the dance was opened with the debutante figure. The german was chaperoned by Mrs. C. C. Walker, Mrs. A. Belne Blair, Mrs. Thomas S. Carter, Mrs. B. R. Randolph, Mrs. H. H. Hargrave, Mrs. John W. Harrison, Mrs. Hiram Smith and Mrs. Godwin Boykin.

The patronesses of the evening were Mrs. E. C. Minor, Mrs. R. Carter Scott, Mrs. Armistead Wellford, Mrs. Donnan and Mrs. Levin Jones.

The Richmond alumni proved themselves most agreeable hosts, and through their efforts, seconded by the committee, the chaperons and patronesses, the german, as the climax of Thanksgiving gaieties, was a delightful affair to the home and the visiting girls to the Richmond and the university men who were their guests of honor. The attendance was large, and the ballroom, brilliantly illuminated and filled with animated and graceful figures, reflected a brilliant and beautiful picture. Certainly only pleasant social moments follow in the wake of Thanksgiving Day, 1910.

The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Charles Warren Currier.

D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, preached an excellent sermon, his subject being "The Thanksgiving Call to Youth."

PHYSICIAN FINDS MRS. MARTIN SANE

State Expert Says She Told Him Ocey Snead Killed Himself With Morphine.

PRISONER MAKES A SCENE

Ordered from Courtroom, but Judge Relents on Promise to Be Quiet.

New York, November 24.—State witnesses gave testimony yesterday in the proceedings to determine the sanity of Mrs. Caroline B. Martin in the Essex county Courthouse, in Newark. Dr. C. C. Belling, one of the State experts, testified that the death of Ocey W. M. Snead was the result of morphine, self-administered. This information he had obtained from the prisoner in an interview, and concluded by saying that the accused woman was perfectly sane in all that she says and does.

"My daughter died from an overdose of morphine," the physician testified. Mrs. Martin told him. "She took too much, and was beside herself with rage. Dr. Belling said that Mrs. Martin related to him that Ocey Snead had been talking on the subject of morphine for a year. She was humored and temporized, and it was thought when they moved out to East Orange she had lost the idea."

The physician had previously testified that Mrs. Martin told him that both her daughter, Ocey W. M. Snead, and Miss Virginia O. Wardlaw, her sister, had been addicted to the use of the drug. Ocey took it for illness following the birth of her first child. She declared, the doctor explained, that Miss Wardlaw took it for neuralgia. The morphine, the witness testified, was kept on a stand, "as other people keep cocaine."

While Dr. Belling was testifying Mrs. Martin became agitated and declared that the physician got his information from her by flattery. Her hostility toward the physician was such that Judge Ten Eyck asked Mrs. Martin if she wanted the witness to testify she was crazy.

"No," she cried, in a much excited manner. "I want him to tell only the truth."

Mrs. Martin then began one of her tirades that have characterized her actions since the proceedings began twelve days ago. She shouted and sobbed and was beside herself with rage. Judge Ten Eyck rapped his gavel heavily, but Mrs. Martin did not pay the least attention to him. Then, for the first time during the hearing, the court ordered Mrs. Martin taken from the courtroom, and a recess was declared to accomplish this.

As the constable approached her the prisoner fought furiously and screamed. Her condition was such that the judge rescinded his order, as he did not want to use too much force against her. She partly collapsed, and when she recovered she promised to refrain from disturbing the court. Upon this promise Judge Ten Eyck granted her permission to remain in the courtroom.

Just before the opening of the proceedings yesterday morning Mrs. Martin made a direct appeal to the court to induce her interruptions, saying that she was neither insane nor guilty.

"Judge Ten Eyck," she addressed the court, "I am here without a lawyer, a jury, a friend or money. I am being crushed under the gigantic machine of men, men and lies. Can't I tell you when I'm crazy?"

"Dr. Belling said that I told him Prosecutor Mott couldn't give me a character. I don't have to take my character from Mr. Mott. I had it before I ever knew him. What I said was that he couldn't restore the spotless character that had been taken from me by this case."

Mrs. Martin described her own mental condition, the physician testified, as due to an unusual physical condition, and said that her peculiarities were due to teaching and lecturing.

IT WAS ECZEMA

IT WAS RINGWORM

It Spread All Over His Head—If Touched It Would Bleed and Leave Raw Spot—Could not Go to School—Spent $200, Still He Was Bald.

Got Cuticura. In Six Weeks He Was Well and Had Growth of Hair.

"One day, when my boy was five years old, I noticed a sore on the top of his head. I was alarmed, so I called in Dr. — and he said it was eczema. After treating it for a week it spread all over his head, so the doctor advised us to see a specialist in New York, by the name of —. He said it was a bad case, and he had to operate. He took out the hair, and the boy's head was still bald. He had a disgusting looking little head. It would bleed and if you touched it it would bleed and leave a raw spot. All the time he had not been able to go to school, although he was eight years old. "Then an old druggist named — said, 'Why don't you try Cuticura?' So we decided to try the Cuticura Remedies ourselves. We got Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent and they gave our boy immediate relief with the first application and in six weeks' time he was well and had a growth of hair.
